

INSTRUCTIONReleased Time for Private Instruction

Students shall not be released during school hours for group or private instruction which is not a part of the regular school program unless defined by an IEP/504 Plan or participating in an approved home instruction program.

No time shall be set aside in the schools for religious instruction.

Editor's Note

See Division Regulation 7-11.2 which authorizes a home instructed student to take up to two courses for credit, per year.

Adopted by School Board: March 24, 1987
Amended by School Board: June 29, 1999